Our Mission and Goal

The purpose of Rising Sun Sober Living is to give individuals in recovery the opportunity to adjust to living, working, and attending AA meetings while living in a clean and sober environment surrounded by supportive people in recovery.

Rising Sun is committed to offering quality, affordable, safe and sober housing in a home-like setting. Our top priority is to assure each house is in harmony and provides a serene, comfortable environment for all the Guests. Any Guests being disrespectful, unkind or inconsiderate to others in housing will be asked to leave.

The homes are equipped with all the amenities and utilities necessary to function in a normal living environment. Guests may bring clothing, toiletries, towel set, bedding, food, bike, and small TV for bedroom. Rising Sun is not responsible for any lost or stolen items.

Our Guests are committed to staying clean and sober, one day at a time. Many attend AA/NA meetings in the local community while others are involved in outpatient treatment programs. Rising Sun provides just the right amount of structure and accountability to help support our Guests in achieving this goal.

Our company is well managed and supervised by professional, caring men and women whom are compassionate about helping people in recovery. The foundation of our program is based on the Big Book of Alcoholics Anonymous. Rising Sun is not a faith based program, but a spiritual program that encourages

The Rising Sun Inn

Guests to attend 12-Step meetings, read the Big Book, get a sponsor, get into service and take advantage of the fellowship available to them. Rising Sun Sober Living houses are tastefully furnished, located close to transportation, markets, restaurants and many AA meetings.

First month's Guest fee of $450 is due prior to move-in. Guest fee will be due on the same day each month as long as you remain a monthly paying Guest. Weekly and Bi-weekly payments will be accepted beginning the second month: Weekly $125 and Bi-weekly $225. There is no mandatory stay limit beyond the first month. Guests can stay as long as desired.

Rising Sun is an approved provider of Safe and Sober Housing through the State of Idaho Department of Health & Welfare. All BPA funded guests are responsible for paying a $60 monthly program fee.

Included in your guest fee: Random Drug and Alcohol tests, utilities, cable TV, local/long distance phone, paper products, cleaning supplies, laundry soap, and bedding if needed. Wi-Fi is available at all locations for use with smart phones, tablets and laptops.
